

ECO-TOURISM

- EcoTourists are people who enjoy the beauty of our natural environment, and the activities within it.
- It promotes their awareness of nature, and of the need for conservation.
- Locals in the area will now have a new market of people, and can earn a living from these tourists.

Warnings!

- Do not move people out to develop the eco-area.
- Make financial opportunities available to locals.
- Incorporate locals in the conservation programmes.
- Protect ecologically-sensitive areas.
- Area must be available to all people – not just the rich.

